

DNB Asset Management S.A.

Norwegian – Sustainable – Responsible

An active boutique asset manager with Nordic roots

DNB Asset Management is a 100% subsidiary of DNB ASA, Norway's largest financial services group with around 10 000 employees.

DNB Asset Management employs 165 people and manages around EUR 72 billion across all asset classes. The company is headquartered in Oslo with additional locations in Bergen, Stockholm and Luxembourg.

As an ESG pioneer, we have been investing responsibly since 1989 and integrate ESG (environmental, social and governance) principles to some extent in all our investment solutions. Specialists from our own ESG Lab support the portfolio managers in the implementation of the long-term themes (climate change, human rights, and water), as well as in annually added themes such as deforestation, gender equality and ocean protection.
